

THEMES OF THE MONTH

DECEMBER – Stay Alert, Don't Get Hurt

JANUARY- Stay Alert, Don't Get Hurt

FEBRUARY – Wonders of Science

PRIMARY

COMPETITIONS

Candle Decorating Competition – 3rd December 2024

The purpose of the candle decorating competition is to foster art and creativity among students, while also developing their unlimited imaginative and fine motor skills. Students from classes I to V actively participated thereby showcasing many beautifully decorated and artistically decorated candles.

Card Making – 3rd December 2024

The card making competition was held to foster creativity, encourages self-expression, develops fine motor skills, enhances writing abilities, and provides a meaningful way to practice thoughtful communication by creating personalized cards for special occasions, all while promoting a sense of accomplishment and joy in the process of making something tangible.

Webinar on Cyber Psychology – 30th January 2025

A webinar on Cyber Psychology was conducted to spread awareness among parents on rising crimes related to cyber world and also the impact of use of technology on growth and development of children physically and psychologically.

When I Grow Up, I will be - 31st January 2025

'Magic happens when you give your dreams the wings to fly'.

When I Grow Up, I will be was an initiative to give our little souls a chance to fly with their wings of imagination. This competition was held to promote students to cast a vision on their future prospects and also to enable their public speaking skills. To help them set clear goals and stay focused on their future.

This gives them direction and motivation to work harder.

Museum Visit - 1st February 2025

The students were taken for a museum visit at Don Bosco Mawlai to promote a hands-on learning experience that enriches their understanding of history, culture, science, and art by allowing them to interact with real artifacts, fostering critical thinking, developing historical empathy, and sparking curiosity through immersive environments, all while going beyond what textbooks can offer.

Poster making Competition on Cancer Prevention - 10th February 2025

Cancer prevention is a practice of taking active measures to decrease the incidence of cancer and mortality. Cancer prevention is taking steps to reduce the risk of developing cancer. The aim of the competition is to foster the awareness and knowledge on cancer preventive measures and motor skills while allowing the children to express themselves and their knowledge on cancer and its prevention through art.

Cooking Without Fire Competition -

12th February 2025

'No one is born a great cook. One Learns by Doing'

The main objective of this competition was to promote self-dependency among students and also the prospect of cooking recipes that can be done without fire. The competition was held on with maximum participation of students with full enthusiasm and lots of happy energies.

Laughter Challenge - 14th February 2025

One of the best feelings in the world that also brings so much of cheer to life is laughter. It really is one of the best medicines in the world. The laughter challenge competition was held to promote both mental and physical well-being while creating a fun and positive environment. Participating in fun activities also helped students overcome shyness and builds confidence.

Medical checkup of students

activity - 18th Feb 2025

School health checkups for students can include vision, hearing, dental and physical exam.

The medical checkups for students were conducted on to proactively identify potential health issues early on, allowing for timely treatment, prevent the spread of contagious diseases within the school community, and ensure they are physically and mentally capable of learning effectively, ultimately contributing to their overall academic success.

Spell Bee Competition - 24th February 2025

The Spell Bee competition was held to enhance their vocabulary, improve their spelling skills, build confidence, develop a strong foundation in the English language, and learn to handle pressure while actively engaging with words and their meanings, ultimately benefiting their reading and writing abilities across all subjects.

PRE-PRIMARY SECTION

MONTH OF DECEMBER

Theme –Stay Alert, Don't Get Hurt

RED COLOR DAY ACTIVITY -03rd

December 2024

Red color day is celebrated in school to teach children about the color red and its significance. The day was designed to make learning fun and interactive, helping children identify and relate to the color through dress code and decorations. Children also displayed different red color images and objects and spoke on the same in the assembly..

ECO CLUB ACTIVITY:

As part of eco club activity, students of eco club had prepared posters on numerous pollution and hazards and ways to combat them. This was followed by talks on the topics and questionnaire to the other student's audience. This activity was a step to promote eco-friendly ways and acts to reduce pollution in our surrounding and for awareness among children on how to contribute on sustainable eco-development.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION - 3rd December 2024

Christmas is celebrated across the world on 25th December to commemorate the birth of Jesus Christ.

It is a season of joy, peace and happiness

Pre-Christmas celebration was organized at Air Force School on 3rd December, Christmas tree was decorated, children sang traditional Christmas carols like jingle bells, Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer song was also sung, Santa Claus visited the school and distribute sweets to the children. Different activities was also conducted for all the pre-primary students where children participated with great enthusiasm

COMMUNITY LUNCH - 3rd December 2024

A community lunch in school is a gathering where students and teachers come together to share a meal. It is organized to promote a sense of belonging, collaboration and appreciation for diversity within the school community.

All the teachers and children enjoyed the day sharing and eating food with each other.

empathy and explore new worlds. It also improves vocabulary and communication skills.

All the students of pre-primary participated with lots of excitement as they speak (narrate the stories)

MONTH OF FEBRUARY

Theme- Wonders of Science

YELLOW COLOUR DAY ACTIVITY-

3rd February 2025

Yellow is a vibrant colour that represents happiness, positivity, warmth and creativity. It also brings brightness and enthusiasm to life.

Kite making activity was conducted on this day where children participated in the activity with great enthusiasm. They learned how to make a kite with yellow colour paper and then decorate it with beads, glitters and sequence. This activity enhances their crafting skills and promotes outdoor recreation.

MONTH OF JANUARY

Theme – Stay Alert, Don't Get Hurt

STORY TELLING COMPETITION-

29th January 2025

Story telling competition was conducted virtually on 29th January 2025

Story telling is important for the child development because it helps children learn language, develops

SINGING COMPETITION – 12th

February 2025

Singing Competition was conducted for the Students of Lkg and Ukg classes so that they could showcase their talent and skills, to enhance their self-confidence.

Students participated with great enthusiasm.

SCHOOL PICNIC – 17th February 2025

School picnic a fun-filled, relaxed activity was organized for the Pre- Kg students at the Golf Course . The objective of the picnic was to provide a positive memory and a bond between the students and the teacher. The children enjoyed the day with joy , laughter and excitement.

CELEBRATION

Pre- Christmas Celebration

Pre-Christmas celebration was organized at Air Force School on 3rd December , Christmas tree was decorated, children sang traditional Christmas carols like jingle bells, Rudolph the red -nosed reindeer song was also sung, Santa Claus visited the school and distribute sweets to the children

Different activities was also conducted for all the pre-primary students where children participated with great enthusiasm

Community Lunch

A community lunch in school is a gathering where students and teachers come together to share a meal. It is organized to promote a sense of belonging, collaboration and appreciation for diversity within the school community.

All the teachers and children enjoyed the day sharing and eating food with each other.

Republic Day

India celebrated its 76th Republic Day with the theme Swarnim Bharat: Virasat aur Vikas, highlighting military strength, development, and cultural diversity.

The republic day was celebrated on 26th January 25 at Air Force School Upper Shillong providing an opportunity to learn about the values of freedom, equality, and justice that the Constitution upholds, while also fostering a sense of national pride and responsibility as citizens; this was achieved through activities like flag hoisting.

School Annual Picnic

A picnic is a trip outside of the classroom where students and teachers can enjoy each other's company and learn new things.

The school Annual Picnic for the session was held on 15th Feb 25 at Sacred Forest, Mawphlang. The picnic was a great success, with the entire school community coming together to enjoy the picnic. It promoted healthy food choices where students were provided with fruits as refreshments. The picnic was on a sunny day which aids in Vitamin D and calcium absorption. The picnic also included many activities like football, cricket, badminton, sightseeing and field dance, while also fostering a sense of community and togetherness among students and teachers.

TOTAL NUMBER OF WORKING DAYS

PRIMARY – 30 DAYS

PRE-PRIMARY – 27 DAYS

AIR FORCE SCHOOL UPPER SHILLONG

NEWSLETTER
DECEMBER 2024
JANUARY &
FEBRUARY 2025

